Come Learn, Have Fun at the Beach, and Earn Scholarship Money

Center for Disability Rights is presenting two summer self-empowerment camps for High School Juniors and Seniors with disabilities. Participants will learn how to advocate for themselves, and what the Americans with Disabilities Act requires for disabled access at our beaches and parks. The first three days will be in a workshop setting, and the final two days will be field trips. Lunch will be provided. Each participant who attends the whole program will get a $500.00 scholarship for school or to meet his/her independent living needs. All participants in either the Clinton or West Haven camp must attend the CDR Wheel-A-Thon on July 25, 2017 in West Haven to receive his/her award.

Apply today! Each camp is limited to 5 participants. Use application attached, or visit www.CDR-CT.org; click on "Scholarship." E-mail MarcAnthony@CDR-CT.org
